Sub Your representation dt.01-03-2017 addressed to PMO/South Block, New Delhi.

Ref. i) OFB L. No. 050/MOD/PMO/APR/2017/GSF/Per/Grv. Dtd. 18-04-2017
ii) GSF L. No.107/050/16-17/Miscellaneous dated 16-03-2017
iii) BGES School letter No. Nil dated 17-03-2017

With reference to your petition dt.01-03-2017 to Hon'ble Prime Minister regarding allowing your school students to visit this factory, it is stated that, this Factory vide letter dated 16-03-2017 had invited the BGES School students to visit the exhibition of its product and its history on 18-03-2017.

In response to the invitation of the factory to visit exhibition of its products and its history, the BGES School vide their letter dated 17-03-2017 has thanked the factory for the invitations and further expressed their inability to send their teachers and students to participate in the exhibition in view of their ongoing examination in the school.

Further, it is informed that the factory has planned to open a permanent exhibition building (outside the perimeter wall of the factory) during 2017-18 and once it is opened, all school students of Kolkata and other states of India including BGES School will get the opportunity to visit the exhibition of the products of the factory, the manufacturing process and its rich history to enable them to take pride in the defence preparedness of the nation.
